52403

Description

---

*Accepted offer, may continue to show for potential back up offer* To say move-in ready for this stunning home would be an understatement. If you are looking for the charm and character of the SE side with the updates of new construction, then this home is for you. This charmer looks like an episode of HGTV with its many updates and upgrades that will save you money for years to come! The seller has lovingly created a modern feel completely on point with today's current trends. Some of the updates include new kitchen with granite countertops, new bathrooms, new flooring, new roof, new central air, and new appliances; just to mention a few. You will fall in love with the floor plan as you have a bedroom with a walk-in closet on the main and two additional bedrooms upstairs and a remodeled full bath. Outside you will enjoy the large level fenced yard, oversized deck perfect for entertaining and a 1 car detached garage. You will fall in love with the location of this home as it is close to Downtown with easy access to anywhere in the city you need to go! Call for a private showing today.
