

The BAILS Team O'BRIEN | WILLIER | RIGGAN | MCATEE | VANDEBERG

Buying a Home?

See how easy it can be when you work with the local real estate team that's #1 in sales!

1

Start your home search at urbanacres.com/thebailsteam.

We have easy access to all properties in the Iowa City Area MLS. Browse the properties you're interested in. When you find one that checks the items on your wish list, our team is always available to answer your call, email, or text.

2

Take a 3D virtual tour and narrow down your list of properties.

Each of our listings offer 3D virtual Matterport tours so you can 'walk through' the home and decide which homes you want to see in person.

Reach out and we'll take it from there!

Buying a home is a major investment. Let our experience guide your purchase, whether you're buying your first home or your third. We're problem solvers, not sales people, who work with your vision, needs, and budget to help you find what you're looking for.

What You Can Expect from The Bails Team

24/7 Services

Hiring our team means you'll have access to the real estate expertise you need anytime, anywhere. That's our 24/7 commitment to our residential and commercial customers.

360° Knowledge

Our team has a deep understanding of the whole residential and commercial real estate picture, which makes us unique—it's what we like to call a panoramic view of real estate.

100% Effort

That's the effort our team puts in every day for you. Instead of one agent, you get a team of dedicated, full time professionals that can assist you with all your real estate needs.

What You Get as a Buyer

- Collectively we specialize in every aspect of real estate (buying, selling, new construction, commercial, development)
- Many years of collective experience.
- Local market experts and work in all the neighboring communities.
- Multiple agents working to find you that perfect property.

Get in Touch

Ready to work together? When you hire the Bails Team, you'll have access to more than 50 years of residential, development, and commercial real estate experience—anytime, anywhere.
